I am currently mobilized/deployed. A copy of my orders are provided. 2 My duty location is located in - list state or country: 3 My expected release from active duty (REFRAD) date is: I understand that if promoted, I must advise the commander of the position into which I am promoted of any 4 change in my status or expected REFRAD date. I understand that if I am released from mobilization under U.S.C. Title 10, Section 12302 and accept a consecutive extended voluntary active duty for operational support (ADOS) assignment under U.S.C. Title 10, Section 12301, the position into which I am promoted may be released for fill by another qualified Soldier. Failure to obtain authorization from the gaining commander may result in a revocation of my promotion (de facto status not authorized). I also understand that when released from the concurrent voluntary active duty, it is my responsibility to locate a position for which I am qualified or I will be subject to the overstrength policy in effect at the time of release from voluntary active duty. SECTION C - ARMY RESERVE MILITARY TECHNICIANS Indicate below if employed as an Army Reserve civilian employee with a dual status condition of employment. NITIALS Military Technician (MT) (excludes MTs with a hire date before 2 Dec 95, AMSA, ECS & ASF personnel). I understand that it is my responsibility to verify that the gaining duty position is within the boundaries established by the conditions of my civilian employment. If not, it is my responsibility to notify my promotion authority 1 immediately. I understand that if I do not decline promotion within 90 days of the effective date of promotion and/or do not request reassignment orders to report within 90 days of release from mobilization, my orders will be revoked, all 2. funds based on the higher grade will be recouped and I will be removed from the promotion list. SECTION D - EXCEPTIONS INITIALS I understand the provisions in Chapter 5, Section II 5-22 and 5-23 - Special Promotions, the exception to decline promotion based on civilian employment or instructor/drill sergeant status does not apply for promotion outside my normal convening authority area under the No Geographic Limits policy. SECTION E - PROMOTION PREFERENCES, AGREEMENTS AND UNDERSTANDING 1. MILEAGE, ASSIGNMENT & OBLIGATION INITIALS DESCRIPTION (50, 75, 100, 125, 150, etc.) miles from my residence to serve in the duty I agree to travel position to which I am promoted. I understand that I may be promoted and reassigned into any duty position for which I am qualified within the distance of miles selected based on the needs of the Army. Failure to list mileage, initial statement, and sign this document means I will only be promoted if a position for which I qualify is available within 50 miles (limited to 90 minutes total one way commuting time) from my home of residence (See AR 140understand that if promoted into an MOS immaterial position, I will not be awarded the duty MOS (00G), but will be considered MOS qualified based on my primary MOS. I understand that I will be considered for promotion in my Primary, Secondary and Additional MOS based on qualificaiton and needs of the Army. If I am no longer qualified to perform in any of those MOSs, I understand I must initiate action to withdraw that MOS prior to promotion consideration. understand that if I accept promotion, I agree to comply with a reassignment order or my promotion orders may d. be revoked, funds based on the higher rank recouped, and I will be removed from the promotion list. I understand that I incur a 36 month TPU service remaining requirement from the effective date of promotion. understand I must report for the duty position to which promoted and comply with any reassignement orders issued. Promotion and reassignment will be revoked if I fail to decline a promotion based on a concurrent reassignment, refuse to comply with the reassignment order, or fail to meet the 36 month TPU service remaining requirement. Transfers of TPU Soldiers serving under a promotion service remaining requirement must be approved by the first general officer in the chain of command to preclude reduction or revocation of the promotion. I understand that if I am mobilized or deployed and cannot be immediately reassigned to the gaining unit, I must ensure reassignment orders are published and I must report to the gaining position no later than the 91st day f. after release from mobilization. Failure to do so, may be deemed as a declination in which case my promotion orders may be revoked and all funds received based on the higher rank may be recouped.
